

HISPANIC LINGUISTICS MAJOR
ADVISING WORKSHEET- FALL 2020
(Revised 05/19/20)

STUDENT'S NAME _____ PID # _____

EMAIL: _____ PHONE# _____

1ST MAJOR _____

1ST MINOR _____

2ND MAJOR _____

2ND MINOR _____

GATEWAY COURSE: SPAN 261 (Advanced Spanish in Context) or 267 (Advanced Spanish in Context for Heritage Learners).

- SPAN 261 or 267 should be taken before SPAN 300.
- The requirements below consist of eight courses between SPAN 300 and SPAN 699.
- Although LING 101 does not count towards the major, it is highly recommended to take this course prior to taking upper-level Spanish linguistics courses.

The requirements are as follows:

8 COURSES REQUIRED IN MAJOR (24 credit hours):

1. SPAN 300 Spanish Composition and Grammar Review. _____

2. Two introductory Hispanic linguistics courses:

SPAN 360 _____

SPAN 376 _____

3. Two specialized Hispanic linguistics courses: SPAN 375, 378, 397, 677, 678, 679, 680, 682, 683, 684 and one of these courses must be a 600-level course. _____

4. One course in a language relevant to Spanish: SPAN 414, 416, or PORT 401. _____

5. Two additional courses chosen from SPAN 338, 340, 344, 361, 371, 373, 375, 378, 397, 415, 417, PORT 402, SPAN 676, 677, 678, 679, 680, 682, 683, or 684 _____

Website: <https://catalog.unc.edu/undergraduate/programs-study/romance-languages-major-ba-hispanic-linguistics/#requirements>

Dr. Martha Ruiz García
Undergraduate Advisor for Hispanic Linguistics.
ruizgar@email.unc.edu (Dey Hall 139)